1. During December various acts of sabotage occurred inside Yugoslavia. On the night of 15-16 December, a large military food warehouse at Solkano was burned to the ground. The UDB reportedly knows the arsonist who has fled to Italy. Ten young men, suspected of being accomplices, are under temporary "control" of the UDB which means that special approval must be obtained before they are permitted to leave their villages.
2. In Zagreb, a Militia night patrol was attacked in the street and in the resulting fight, two members of the Militia died and one was seriously wounded.
3. On 16 December, a freight train travelling from Ljubljana via Jesenice and Podbro toward Gorica plunged into the small Baca River when the bridge at Podbro was dynamited. The caboose, in which the Militia guards were riding, was the only car to stay on the rails.
